

Freedom Manor Presents

"Freedom Ain't Free" Inaugural Ball

Greetings,

Freedom Manor will be hosting the "Freedom Ain't Free" Inauguration Party on Monday January 19, 2009. The event will be held from 7:30 pm - 12:30 am at Freedom Manor, located at 10905 Livingston Road in Fort Washington, Maryland. This will be a Black Tie affair at a cost of $65.00 per person in advance. (payments can be made online at PayPal) Heavy hors d'oeuvres will be served, there will be music, dancing, networking and the celebration of this countries first African American president. We will also be dedicating the Barack Obama room in our facility.

There were sacrifices made by our parents, grandparents and ancestors that have gotten us where we are today and there are sacrifices that must still be made for all of us to reach our potential. This is not a time to sit back and celebrate that we have arrived. It's time to roll up our sleeves and get to work.

The proceeds from the event will be used to help establish the "Freedom Garden of Remembrance" exhibit in the rear of Freedom Manor to celebrate and pay tribute to those Americans that have paved the way for our people.

A number of dignitaries from the political, educational, religious and business world have been invited, as they confirm their attendance, we will update the information on our web site (www.FreedomManor.com). One of the added benefits of our event is our location. We are located about 5 minutes south of National Harbor, off of Indian Head Hwy. You will not have to go to downtown Washington DC to attend our event.

Freedom Manor is a meeting and event facility located in the Broad Creek Historic District in beautiful Fort Washington, Maryland. Come see our exhibits in the Harriet Tubman Auditorium, the Carter G. Woodson Multi-Purpose Room, the Madame C. J. Walker Kitchen, the Maya Angelou Reception Room and the Malcolm X Technology Lab. Our property was part of Harmony Hall Plantation which still stands less than 1/2 mile away from Freedom Manor. What better location to celebrate the inaguration of our president.
